

See East Window Display.

THE THALHEIMER STORE
CATTERING TO THE PEOPLE

Rugs and Druggets.

Full line Smyrna Rugs now on display, in Persian and Oriental effects, in many rich designs, and must be seen to be appreciated.

26-inch All-Wool Rugs, ten different styles, $1.00 each.
30-inch All-Wool Rugs, $2.00 value, $1.50 each.
Heavy Smyrna Rugs, 30-inch, $1.50 value, now $1.08.
36-inch All-Wool Rugs from $2.48 to $5.00.
Best 10-Wire Tapestry Druggets for $15.00.
Wilton Druggets, 9x12, from $35.00 to $75.00.
26x32 Axminster Rugs, $8.50.
Mats to match these, $1.00 each.
Hartford Axminster Druggets, 9x12, $25.00,
Couch Covers, 50 inches by 3 yards long, in five different styles, worth $1.50, to sell 98c each.

boards of stage and hunting gaily floating in the presence of the new freight steamer Raleigh, of the Baltimore Steam Packet Company, received report to-day from Baltimore on her sudden voyage. The vessel received a noisy welcome from the other steam craft in the harbor.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Elizabeth R. Madison.
Mrs. Elizabeth R. Madison died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jacksley T. Merrill.

The interment will occur at 4 o'clock this afternoon in Blandford Cemetery, Petersburg.

Mrs. J. B. Winfree, manager of the American Express Company; Joseph Zimmerman, superintendent of traffic of the Adams Express Company; John D. Ludlow, traffic manager of Wells, Fargo and Company.

Mrs. C. G. Brown.
(Special in The Times-Island.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., August 15.—Mrs. C. G. Brown, widow of John C. Brown, died at her home, near Stevensburg, this morning, recently aged eighty-two years. She is survived by four children.

Mrs. W. W. Traylor.
(Special to The Times-Herald.)
PETERSBURG, Va., August 28.—Mrs. Willard W. Traylor died this morning at her home in Chesterfield county, a few miles from this city, of typhoid fever.

Mrs. Sarah E. Carlyle.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LUMBERTON, N. C., August 24.—Mrs. Sarah E. Carlyle, an elderly, devoted widow, died this morning at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Carlyle was her acts of charity and pure Christian life. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and was a devoted follower of the teachings of Jesus Christ.

She leaves one son, Mr. W. W. Caldwell, and one daughter, Mrs. B. D. Caldwell, both of this place.

DEATHS.

—

—

ELIZABETH R. MATSON.—Died, yesterday, in the eighty-seventh year of her age, Mrs. ELIZABETH R. MATSON, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hackley T. Morrison, 36 South Fourth Street, Richmond. She was the daughter of life John Young and Charlotte Meade Stockell, of Petersburg, Va. Interment at Randolph Cemetery, Petersburg. To-DAY at 4:30 P. M.

EWELL, Ed. Wednesday, August 22nd, at 814 East Lyncave Street, Baltimore, Md. FIDELIA, wife of George W. Sewell.

BLAIR, Wm. V. A. August 23.—Samuel Sisk, of Asheville, N. C., fell from a freight train to-day at Davy and was instantly killed.

—Last night a man was struck by a west-bound freight train at Eckman to-day and was fatally wounded. He was taken to the Welch Hospital, but will die.

Whether You Live in the Suburbs

The Victor

The Victor Talking Machine

the Victor. Those of the family blessed with the ear musical will soon catch, not only the tunes, but also the clearly enunciated words, and a joyful succession of pleasing melodies will invade the household with their rich and rapturous music.

Light, refreshing Summer Songs, in beautiful profusion for your selection, or numbers from the great artists. Scores of the

The Cable Company

The Cable Company,
DISTRIBUTORS
J. G. CORLEY, Gen. Mgr. Richmond, Va.

Write for Catalogue, Price Lists, etc. Very profitable contracts offered to Dealers.